COMMUNITY MUSIC PROGRAMS

Welcome to the Music Department's Community Music Programs site. When Utah State University was established over a century ago, it became part of the land grant university system—a group of state-supported institutions of higher education dedicated to the ideal that the quest for knowledge should be one open to and in service of all the people. Although the land grant mission of the university has changed over time, one essential focus of Utah State University is the support of programs that contribute to the welfare of our constituents.

It is in keeping with this land grant mission that the Music Department sponsors and supports several community music programs. Whether you are a pre-college student or an adult interested in continuing your musical experience as an avocation, we hope that you will find something of interest here in our department.

If you have a question that the links don't address, please use the contact form to ask a question about our community music programs.

For more than 30 years, the Youth Conservatory (YC) has helped parents provide the best for their children by fostering the standards of musical excellence in a learning environment filled with enthusiasm and enjoyment. Founded in 1978 by internationally recognized pianist and pedagogue, Gary Amano, the YC occupies a central role among Cache Valley's cultural programs for young people. Each week, more than 300 pianists, ages 4-18, of varying abilities and backgrounds, come to the Chase Fine Arts Center for piano lessons and musicianship classes. Our unique program offers 30 - 85 minutes of instruction per week, with affordable tuition rates starting at $35 a month. We invite you to take a moment to learn more about our program and see how the Youth Conservatory could benefit your child and your family.
